Dear Friends In Christ,

A widow's sorrow, a leper's desperation and the fear of storm-tossed disciples all moved Jesus to show them God's miraculous love — just as you have done for someone in distress.

You have stepped in to heal pain in one of the poorest parts of the world, putting into action Christ's second-greatest command: Love your neighbor as yourself. (Matthew 22:39)

Whether you filled an empty stomach, nurtured an abandoned child, put a roof over a family, quenched thirst, or helped in some other way, you have brought Christ's message of love and compassion to someone who is suffering or in need.

"Comfort, give comfort to My people, says your God." (Isaiah 40:1)

Thank you for helping to answer someone's cries. May God bless you for your generous expression of His love.

A servant of the poor,

Robin G. Mahfood
